

Who am I ? Where am I from? Where am I going?

Subject Specific Vocabulary
cliff	A steep rock face usually at the edge of the sea.
coast	Where the land meets the sea weather patterns	What the weather is like at different times of the year.
resort	A seaside resort is a town or place where people go on holiday by the sea.
beach	A pebbly or sandy shore, between the sea and a place.
seasonal changes	How the weather changes from one season to another.
lighthouse	Usually a tower containing a beacon of light to warn or guide ships at sea.
destination	The place where you go on holiday.
culture	Where you go to a place to find out about life there, places to visit there and learn the language.
sea	An area of salt water around the coast.
ocean	A large area of salt water between the continents.

By the end of this topic:

- I will know that you can visit a number of places in the UK on holiday and that people go to places for different reasons.
- I will know about the seasonal weather patterns that show why people go on holiday when they do.
- I will know that people can go on holiday further away from home to other countries and that they go for different reasons.
- I will know about the weather in other countries which makes them popular holiday destinations.
- I will know about the physical and human geography of holiday destinations.
- I will link my understanding of where hot and cold places are in the world to our holiday choices.
- I will use a range of maps to find and record where people visit.

Exciting Books

Links to other subjects and core values

- Maths- Statistics of places visited.
- English-Postcard writing.
- Science-Seasonal changes.
- Love- importance of spending time together as a family.
- Respect-responsibility of looking after holiday places.
- Friendship-being a friend to the natural world.