

Subject Specific Vocabulary
unique	being unlike anything else
strengths	something you are good at
features	an interesting but important part
qualities	the things that make up who you are as a person
similar	looking or being almost, but not exactly, the same
common	shared by two or more people or things

What is the same and different about us?

By the end of this topic I will explore...

- what I like/dislike and am good at
- what makes me special and how everyone has different strengths
- how my personal features or qualities are personal to me
- how I am similar or different to others, and what we have in common
- how to use the correct names for the main parts of the body

Links to our core values:

- How can you help those who feel lonely?
- How can you show love and friendship to others?
- How can having hope help you manage friendships?

Links to the PSHE/RSE Curriculum:

Relationships:
H21, H22, H23, H25, R13, R23, L6, L14